DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The house is a 1-1/2 story, three bay brick structure on a stone foundation. The walls are laid-up in common bond; the openings are carried by flat brick arches. The north and south end walls have flush gable chimneys with three courses of projecting bricks serving as the chimney caps. On the rear (south) facade, the basement is exposed; access is through two ground level doors, the lintels of which are flush with the top of the stone foundation walls.

The ruins of a second, smaller house--a large chimney and partial foundation walls--stand to the south of the main house.
